

ReDiscover
PSYCHOLOGICAL
SERVICES

Registered Psychologist

Come join our counselling family!

ReDiscover Psychological Service is a client-focused psychology practice that provides high quality psychological services that are collaborative, genuine, and diverse.

We are a growing practice seeking a Registered Psychologists (Contracted) to provide the following services: individual, couples, and family counselling.

Qualification include:

- Applicants must have a Master's Degree or higher in Psychology, Education, or Social Work
- Active registration with the College of Alberta Psychologists. Registered Provisional Psychologists must have their own external supervisor.
- Maintenance of individual professional liability and corporate liability insurance required
- Professional; team-oriented; adaptive to team environment; hard-working

Experience with the following will be an asset:

- Competency in Gottman Method or be willing to complete Levels 1 and 2 in the first month of employment.
- Competency working with families or have a willingness to learn.
- Have experience working with one or more of the following; First responders/Health care personnel, Military/Veterans, NIHB, WCB, High-conflict divorces.
- Familiarity with online technology such as Jane App and Google Drive
- Facilitating group therapy, workshops and professional trainings
- Experience performing all administrative components of counselling therapy
- The following training: EMDR, Prolonged Exposure Therapy, Cognitive Processing Therapy, or any other trauma focused modalities
- Qualified to complete Court Assessments (Example: Practice Note 7 & 8)

Your responsibilities include:

- Attending bi-weekly team meetings
- Providing counselling therapy
- Ongoing professional development, on top of current research and methodologies
- Operate independently using Jane App to set up appointments, bill, and schedule appointments
- Contribution to the team through social media participation (podcast production for example), case consultation, client consultations, professional development offerings, etc.

Job Type: Full-time, Part-time, Contract

Salary: Contract Split

To Apply: Send resume to info@rediscoverpsych.com